NOTE 1 - The Auditor's Office is respectfully requesting that the week of Christmas and the week of New Year's we hold the county board meeting on Monday, rather than Tuesday. By union contract the Courthouse is closed the afternoon of December 24th, so if we hold a board meeting that morning, and then are off Tuesday afternoon & Wednesday, we are rushed for time to get the minutes written and the packets sent out on the Thursday the 26th. Also, New Year's Eve is one of the busiest days in our office - we are inundated with deeds that the attorneys need recorded before year end. I do not allow any of my staff to be gone that day, as it takes all of us working together to meet our deadlines that day. So it would work much better for me and my staff to hold that week's meeting on Monday.
